

Harbor City Boy Made Happy Again by Gift of Dog from S. P. Man

These are happy days again for six-year-old Buddy Martin of Harbor City because he has a new pet—Tootsie.

Tootsie is the gift of Frank Sundsted of San Pedro who offered the dog to Buddy when he heard that the youngster's brindle-colored, part collie puppy, Tippi, wandered away last week.

Petitions Out for Stop Signs at Two Intersections

Petitions are being circulated in the south end of Lomita asking for stop signs at 101 and Oak street and 101 and Narbonne. To date a large number of signers have been secured by Mrs. W. J. Carden of 25640 Oak street and several other women who state they are unsatisfied with the conditions on the highway for children who attend the Orange street school.

Orange St. P.T.A. Electing President

There will be a special meeting of the Orange Street P.T.A. executive board at the home of Mrs. J. L. Abbott this afternoon for the purpose of electing a president. Mrs. Earle Roberts sent her resignation from Vallejo where Mr. Roberts is employed and where the family will live.

Chapter of Legion of Mothers to Organize at S. P. on Friday

The forming of a local chapter of the National Legion of the Mothers of America will be started Friday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. at the parish of St. Peter's Episcopal church, 415 Tenth street, San Pedro, according to Mrs. Leonard Thompson, press chairman.

Mrs. Frances Sherrill, state president, and Mrs. Della Rippe, national recruiting director, will be the speakers at the meeting to which American women of the Harbor area who are registered voters are invited.

Storm Drain Project Swells WPA Total

The three objectives of the Legion, of which Mrs. Kathleen Norris is national president, are: to oppose conscription of American troops for services overseas; to support a strong campaign for adequate national defense; and to oppose all subversive groups whose object is the destruction of the American form of government.

Storm Drain Project Swells WPA Total

WPA construction projects opened in Los Angeles county since August 1 have totaled more than one million dollars, while projects completed during the two-week period total $575,611, it was announced this week by Herbert C. Logg, WPA Administrator for Southern California.
